

The Boot Camp

Students completing the entire Boot Camp will receive a back pack and school supplies. You must be present each day of the week. Students may bring with them their personal laptops if they believe they can be responsible for the safe keeping of the laptop. There will not be any place to store personal belongings in the library. Students are responsible for all personal belongings.

A certificate will be presented to each child completing the Boot Camp.

Books are just the TIP of the ICEBERG of what we have to offer you!

Department of Archives and History: Alabama Music “Alabama has a rich musical history made up of gospel, soul, the blues, country, and rock and roll. The people of Alabama have made great contributions to all of these genres and more—people like Hank Williams, Sr., W.C. Handy, Nat King Cole, Candi Staton, Dinah Washington, and Lionel Richie. To pay homage to the native Alabamian musicians of yesterday and to the many great artists who came here to record music in iconic studios like Muscle Shoals Sound Studio and FAME Studios. During the program children will dress up like famous musicians, make a craft, read a book, and play several games dealing with music”!
