SUMMER READING LISTS AND ACTIVITIES FOR 2015

Summer reading lists don't have to be a chore. Click into: <http://www.scholastic.com> for lots of fun reading activities and a list of great books to read, videos, and games. You will also discover Quick Links to: The Magic School Bus, Harry Potter, Clifford, and even Scholastic News Magazine. Remember to visit your local public library for information about their summer reading program for children of all ages. While you're there, check out some great books and have fun. Enjoy your summer!

Scholastic.com - "The Stacks for Kids" has lists of interesting books, authors, games, videos, and animation. In "The Stacks" you can browse by: characters, books, authors, games and videos. With "Create Your List" - you can share which books mean the most to you or try one of the creative writing prompts provided.

Amazon.com's reading destination for kids and teens has books for every age; from board books and picture books, to leveled readers, chapter books, and books for middle graders and teens. Create your own activities with reading guides and activity kits, and discover a new author each week with their author adventures featuring children's books and authors of teen books.

About Our Media Center

"Once you learn to read, you will be forever free."

Crump

--Frederick Douglass

The Crump Elementary Media Center is a cozy and comfortable place where students can explore the wonders of reading!

We operate on an Open/Flex schedule. Classes visit the media center once a week on a scheduled basis to check out books. Individual students make additional visits to the media center during flex time. Books may be checked out for one week and renewed as needed.

Checkout Policy

K-1st grade: one book

2nd grade: two books

3rd - 6th: three books

Lost or Damaged Books:

Every effort will be made to provide access to resources in the media center. Students are taught to be responsible and will be held accountable for lost and/or damaged books. Books that are lost or damaged are subject to a replacement fee. Failure to locate the books will result in charges for the replacement cost of the lost book(s).

Media Center Hours

The Media Center is open from 8:30 - 2:30 Monday - Friday.

Vision

The Crump Media Center serves as an integral part of the school educational program. Media Services supports and enriches the curriculum, promotes a love of reading and encourages life-long learning. Flexible scheduling allows students and staff the best possible access to the facility, its staff, and its resources.

Mission

Crump Elementary Media Center will ensure that all students and staff are effective users of information by providing flexible access to library resources and creating a curriculum that is relevant to classroom instruction and aligned with state standards.

Goals

Crump Elementary Media Center will:

- * Provide an environment that supports the curriculum and stimulates learning.
- * Provide flexible scheduling that best meets student and staff needs.
- * Provide an up-to-date collection and technologies that support the curriculum and student and staff needs and interests.

- * Provide multiple opportunities for collaboration with staff to integrate information literacy skills with the curriculum.
- * Provide on-going exposure to literature in a variety of formats that stimulate reading enrichment.
